Campanini's Plans For Chicago Opera

rector of the Chicago Opera Association, who is back from Italy and France, where he has been gearching for new singers, announces the preliminary plans for his second season of four weeks of grand operation in New York, beginning on Monday, Jan, 27, 191s, at the Lexington Theating He will present again Amelita Galli-Curel, Mary Garden, Rosa Galli-Curel, Mary Garden, Rosa Raisa, Carolina Lazarri, Lucien Muchanna and Stracciari, whose wine demonstrate the validity of their undertaking. They are confident that they can demonstrate the validity of their undertaking. Sam Franko has been elected conductor and has adopted the same of the American Symptony and the American Symptony and the American Symptony and the Park. Nevertheirs day in City Hall Park. Nevertheirs day in City Hal French baritone who was a favorite at the Manhattan Opera House in the Hammerstein regime when Mr. Campanini was the musical director, also has been engaged. Galli-Curci is to be the star in at least two revivals, and Hosa Raisa is to be the heroine in "Norma," for a long period heroine in "Norma," for a long period absent from operatic repertory in New York. Revivals, too, of "Otello" and "Falstaff" are contemplated.

Mr. Campanint will give nineteen weeks of opera next season. The company will be three weeks on tour before the opening of the regular season of ten weeks in Chicago. Then there will be four weeks in New York and two weeks in Boston. Mr. Campanini's ultimate intention is to give a section of ten weeks in New York after the Chicago engagement. The leasing of the Lexington Theatre for a period of years makes this possible. Renewals of subscriptions already have exceeded Mr. Campanini's expectations and applications from would-be subscribers are piling up day by day. John Brown is the New York representative of Mr. Campanini's undertaking.
